

Posting cards for Christmas.

All the children had created their own Christmas card for their family.

All the children helped to address and stamp the envelope for the card and then one week before Christmas we went for a walk from Nursery to the post box at the end of Pleasant Rise.

The children took turns to post their envelope with their card inside into the post box and then wait for it to arrive at their house.